

OQUENDO

This is a detailed topographic map of a region in Mexico, likely in the state of Chihuahua, based on the place names. The map features a grid system with coordinates ranging from 43° 08' 45" to 43° 09' 00" longitude and 4772.000 to 4772.600 latitude. The central feature is the Rio Ayala, which flows from the north towards the south. To the west of the river is the Barranco, and to the east is the area labeled 'El Pagolar'. The map shows numerous contour lines indicating elevation, with peaks reaching up to 5173 meters. Several settlements are marked, including Goiko-Etxea, Fuente del Santiago, and El Pagolar. The map also shows various geographical features like 'Repoblación Forestal' (Forest Replantation) and 'Caminos' (roads). The text 'TERMINO DE OQUENDO' is prominently displayed across the middle of the map, and 'AYALA' is written at the bottom. The map is oriented with North at the top.
